

Health & Safety in the Workplace

2020/21 Statistics

93,000 COVID cases

The number of workers suffering from COVID-19 which may have been from exposure at work (new or long-standing)

142 deaths

Workers killed at work

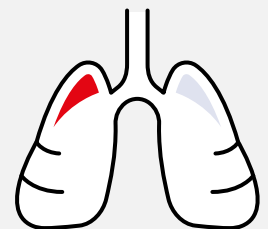

470,000 musculoskeletal disorders

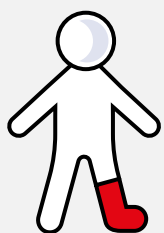

Work-related musculoskeletal disorders due to manual handling, tiring/awkward positions, keyboard work, repetitive action and the effects of the pandemic

12,000 lung disease deaths

Lung disease deaths each year estimated to be linked to past exposures at work

441,000 non-fatal injury

Workers sustaining a non-fatal injury

£26.9m in fines

Resulting from prosecutions taken by HSE where a conviction was achieved

To discuss your Risk Management requirements, please contact our Risk Management Division Manager Keith Marlow on 020 7330 8756/07568 146606 or by email kdm@centor.co.uk

SOURCE: HEALTH AND SAFETY EXECUTIVE, DECEMBER 2021